Junior Show

RYAN STOHLQUIST, ILL.
NJSA Gilts

Ryan Stohlquist is from Poplar Grove, Illinois and is the owner and operator of Stohlquist Showpigs. He also farms corn and soybeans. Ryan has a wide range of judging experience and has judged NJSS Barrows previously. His family includes his wife, Victoria, and three children: Ethan, Isabel and Marshal. His hobbies include buying pigs. His advice to an NJSA member is "set specific goals, work hard and stay hungry." We are excited to have Ryan sort through our Hampshire, Landrace and Yorkshire gilts.

AUSTIN THOMPSON, IND.
NJSA Gilts

Austin Thompson is from Hutchinson Kansas, and now resides in Huntington, Indiana. He attended Hutchinson Community College and Kansas State University. He currently works at Platt Showpigs and Upperhand Genetics. He has a large platform of judging experience, such as 2020 Houston Breeding Gilt Show, 2021 Associate Judge San Antonio Breeding Gilts and numerous jackpots, county and state fairs. He enjoys spending time with his wife Breanna, going to pig shows, sports and being an uncle. His advice to NJSA members is "Take advantage of the opportunities the NJSA has to offer and use it as a platform to connect to people in the industry." We are excited to have Austin sort though our Berkshire and Duroc gilts.

How Judges

TROY SLOAN, MO.
Team Purebred Gilts

Troy Sloan is from Cameron, Missouri and attended Iowa State University and received his degree in Agricultural Studies. He is currently the owner of Team Sloan Livestock. He was a member of the 2012 Iowa State Livestock Judging Team and has had several opportunities to judge shows like San Antonio Stock Show, State Fair of Texas and The Exposition. In his free time, he enjoys watching the Kansas City Chiefs, and showpigs. His advice to an NJSA member would be to "set goals and out work your competition every single day to achieve them." We are excited to have Troy sort through the Team Purebred Gilts.

JOSH BROCKMAN, TEXAS
NJSA Barrows

Josh Brockman resides in Blue Ridge, Texas with his wife, Carrie, and their children Kaden and Kamlynn. He graduated from Texas A&M with a bachelor's degree in ag science and currently operates Brockman Farms. Josh says the NJSA is a great networking connection for young people being able to interact with others and build a network across the country that they can use their entire life. We are excited to have Josh through our NJSA Barrows.

BRANDON YANTIS, ILL.

Team Purebred Barrows

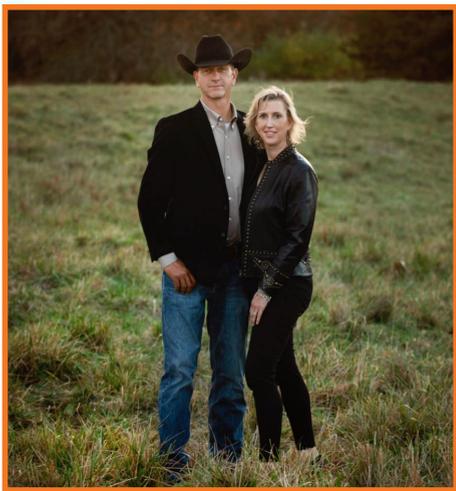

Brandon Yantis is from Piper City, Illinois and attended Black Haw East University, then went on to the University of Illinois and studied swine reproduction. He is currently a Show Feed Specialist and a National Account Manager for Sunglo Feeds with Cargill. They also run a family showpig operation consisting of Chester, Duroc and Spotted sows. Brandon has been fortunate enough to evaluate on the bigger stage, such as NJSA shows and Texas majors. He and his wife Sarah, have two sons, Briggs and Bronx and they are expecting their third child in May. His hobbies including hanging out with his family and whatever his sons want to do. From sitting on a bucket discussing showpigs, showing as a family, to basketball and carpet farming. A piece of advice he has from NJSA members is "Do your part to keep this avenue open for generations to come. This is truly the best education that you can receive in life. Remember to tell your support staff thank you. They have other ways they could spend their time. Lastly, if you have it in your heart, don't let anyone deter you. The best person to have faith in, is yourself." We are excited to have Brandon to sort through our Team Purebred Barrows.

CHRIS HOFSCHULTE, OKLA.

Crossbred Gilts

Chris Hofshulte is from Miama, Oklahoma and attended Oklahoma State University. He is the Owner/ Herdsman at Hofschulte Genetics. He was on the 2012 National Champion Livestock Judging team at Oklahoma State University, and has judged many different shows across the U.S. Chris' family consists of his wife Kaitlyn, daughter Halee, and baby sister on the way. His parents are Phil and Jan Hofschule, brother Nick and sister Natalie Hofschule. His hobbies include livestock shows, and livestock production with his family. If he had one piece of advice for NJSA members, it would be "No days off, work for what you want." We are excited to have Chris sort through our Crossbred Gilts.

MARK HOGE, ILL.

Crossbred Barrows

Dr. Mark Hoge of Good Hope, Illinois. Dr. Hoge has been married to his wife Katie, for 14 years, and they have two sons, Carter and Nolan and daughter Nora. Mark is the graduate of Black Hawk East where he received his associate's degree. He completed his undergraduate work at the University of Illinois.

He went on to obtain his master's from Iowa State University, and PhD. from Michigan State University.

He is currently the livestock judging coach and a professor at Western Illinois University. He has judged multiple county, state, and national swine and cattle shows over the past 20 years. He says he's been very fortunate to have wonderful opportunities across the country to evaluate great livestock and work with the most outstanding young people agriculture has to offer. He lives and breathes livestock and enjoys spending time with his family. His best advice for NJSA members is to always stay positive. He says that the only thing we can control daily is our attitudes. Enjoy time with your family and friends at shows and always be willing to help those around you.

AIMEE INSKEEP, IND.

Showmanship

Aimee Inskeep of Farmland, Indiana graduated from Purdue University in 2009 with a degree in animal agribusiness. She currently works on her family's farm, Shaffer's Goldrush and focuses on the advertising/marketing and helps with their sales. Aimee is married to her husband, Bradley and they have two sons, Cooper and Dylan. Aimee has judged all over the country, as well as internationally. Her experience spans from OYE, NAILE, Ohio State Fair and many more. She enjoys spending time with her boys, diving into a good book and gardening. Her piece of advice for an NJSA member is "enjoy all the opportunities NJSA gives you. You are surrounded by some of the best people in the industry. Take advantage of the opportunities and talk to these industry leaders. Don't be afraid, these skills you learn will be beneficial to you later in life!" We are excited to have Aimee and her sister Lynsee sorting our showmanship divisions.

LYNSEE PULLEN, IND.

Showmanship

Lynsee is from Walton, Indiana and attended Butler Community College and Purdue University where she received a degree in ag education. She currently works for her family's boar stud and showpig operation, Shaffer's Goldrush. She is also a part owner of Walton Webcasting and has an all Duroc herd with her husband, Pullen Show Pigs. She judged collegiately and has been judging at all levels for about 13 years. Her husband Kyle and her have two Duroc loving boys: Kashton and Kodee. She enjoys spending time in the farrowing house, making family memories at pigshows - outside of the barn she enjoys kayaking, and spending time with her friends and family. Her advice to NJSA members is "Be Bold! Don't take a backseat and let time pass by." Whatever you do, work at it with your heart, as working for the Lord. Colossians 3:23. We are excited to have Lynsee and her sister Aimee sorting our showmanship divisions.

CONTEST INFORMATION

SWEEPSTAKES CONTEST

The Sweepstakes Contest is an "all-around" competition designed to recognize the most outstanding NJSA exhibitors through their participation in multiple events. Sweepstakes contestants must declare their intent to compete in the Sweepstakes Contest at registration. Sweepstakes contestants must compete in all four contests at the National Junior Summer Spectacular (NJSS). Points will be contributed from the highest-placing purebred gilt or barrow, Showmanship Contest, Judging Contest and Skillathon Contest toward the Sweepstakes awards. There will be no extra points awarded to those individuals who compete in the additional contests. See the NJSA Handbook for the full Sweepstakes point breakdown.

SHOWMANSHIP CONTEST

Registration: During Check-In July 3 & 4
Showmanship: July 5 at 8 a.m.

Join us for the best Showmanship Contest in the country. Showmanship will begin at 8 a.m. Ring A will host juniors followed by seniors, and Ring B will host novice followed by intermediates. All contestants must be members of the NJSA. Divisions will be randomly broken into classes according to entries. Any animal that does not meet breed eligibility requirements may not be used for Showmanship. Any animal shown in Showmanship must be entered in the junior show.

SKILLATHON CONTEST

Registration: July 3 & 4
Contest: July 4, 2 p.m. - 5 p.m. (must be checked in by 4:30 p.m.)

The Skillathon Contest is a fun, educational contest where participants rotate through stations within each age division and are asked to perform tasks or answer questions on specific swine industry topics. No parents or spectators are allowed in the Skillathon rooms. However, at 5:30pm all participants and parents are invited to go back through the stations to review the questions and correct answers. The following are examples of topics that could be used in the Skillathon: ear notching, swine breeds, swine health, YQCA certification, meat cut identification, swine anatomy (external, internal and skeletal), reproductive physiology, swine diseases and pedigree information.

SWINE IS FINE ART CONTEST: PHOTOGRAPHY DIVISION

Due: During Check-In July 3 & 4

This contest encourages NJSA members to use art to communicate about the industry. Entries will be judged based upon their creativity, composition and technical skills such as lighting, color and focus. For a list of complete rules and regulations, please visit the NJSA Handbook.

SWINE IS FINE ART CONTEST

DRAWING, PAINTING AND MIXED MEDIA DIVISION

Due: During Check-In July 3 & 4

This contest encourages NJSA members to use art to communicate about the industry. Entries will be judged based upon their creativity, composition and technical skills such as shading, color and proportion. For a list of complete rules and regulations, please visit the NJSA Handbook. Entries should be turned in at the time of registration.

AMAZING ADVERTISING CONTEST

Due: During Check-In July 4 from 8 a.m. - Noon

This contest encourages NJSA members to improve their communication and selling skills by designing an advertisement for the NJSA. Entries will be based upon how effectively contestants "sell" the idea of NJSA membership by using images, text and design elements. For a list of complete rules and regulations, please visit the NJSA Handbook. Entries should be turned in at the time of registration.

EXTEMPORANEOUS SPEECH CONTEST

Registration: During Check-In July 3 & 4
Contestant Meeting: July 5, 8:30 a.m.
Contest Begins: July 4, Noon

Contestants must sign up for their time slot during registration.

PREPARED SPEECH CONTEST

Registration: During Check-In July 3 & 4
Contestant Meeting: July 4, 11:30 a.m.
Contest Begins: July 4, Noon

Four copies of your speech are due at registration.

Contestants must sign up for their time slot during registration.

SWINE JUDGING CONTEST

Registration: July 8, 7:30 a.m. - 8:30 a.m.
Junior, Intermediate, Senior Contest: 9 a.m.
Novice Contest: 11:30 a.m.

Test your ability to evaluate breeding gilts and market hogs in the Judging Contest. All contestants must be members of the NJSA. Teams must have three to four contestants from the same age division. The top three scores will comprise the team score. Parents are not allowed near the judging rings during the contest. Assistants will be available to novice or first-time judges who may not understand how to mark their cards. Junior exhibitors will judge six classes and answer two sets of questions. Intermediate exhibitors will judge six classes, give one set of oral reasons and answer two sets of questions. Senior exhibitors will judge six classes and give three sets of oral reasons. Novice will have their own separate contest at 11:30 a.m., on Friday, July 8. They will judge two classes and answer questions on one class. Bonus questions may be asked to break ties. A teaching class will precede the novice contest, and officials will be given immediately after their cards are turned in.
