Method of Judging

1. The NSR Vice President of Operations and the NSR Director of Education and Outreach will oversee selecting three competent and impartial judges to evaluate the contestants.
2. Contestants will be permitted to use notes. Excessive reference may result in a deduction of the contestant's score.
3. The use of visual aids (charts, slides, signs, etc.) is NOT permitted.
4. Judges shall receive copies of the manuscripts prior to judging speeches so the general idea of the speeches may be reviewed before they view prepared speech presentations.
5. The contestant will be scored 40 percent on speech content and organization, and 60 percent on presentation.

6. Upon completion of all speeches, and without consultation, each judge shall total his/her score of the manuscript and presentation for each speaker. Contest officials will then collect the score sheets, deduct points if necessary, for time violations and rank the contestants in numerical order based on each judge's scores. (Highest scores first, lowest scores last).

7. The rankings, not the score, of the three judges shall be added for each speaker, and the final placings will be determined by the lowest composite rankings. Actual scores will be used only to break ties.
